THE ORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL.

1. THE PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

In the revision of the Constitution of the Council at its meeting in 1913, three important additions were made to the statement of its purpose. Not only is the Council, as before, to foster and express the substantial unity of the Congregational churches and consult upon the common interests of all the churches, but it is also (1) to "devise measures and maintain agencies for the promotion of their common interests; (2) to cooperate with any corporation or body under control of or affiliated with the Congregational churches or any of them; and (3) to do and promote the work of the Congregational churches of the United States in their national, international, and interdenominational relations.

Accordingly, at this same meeting the organization of the Council was changed in order to give effect to this enlargement and restatement of purpose. The existing committees were coordinated, new committees were established, and the duties of all were more clearly defined. To avoid confusion, permanent committees were usually given the name of " Commissions."

The Moderator, in addition to the duty of presiding at the sessions of the Council, has the representative function " of visiting and addressing churches and associations upon their invitation and of representing the Congregational churches in the wider relations of Christian fellowship so far as he may be able and disposed." He is ex officio a member of the Executive Committee, and of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and by virtue of his position is chairman of the Congregational delegation in the Federal Council.

The Secretary, in addition to the duty of keeping the Council records, conducting its correspondence and editing its publications, is also instructed to " aid the committees and commissions of the Council " and to " be available for advice and help in matters of polity and constructive organization." Like the Moderator, he may represent the Council and the churches in interdenominational relations. He is, ex officio, Secretary of the Commission on Missions, and of the Executive Committee, and a member of the Board of Ministerial Relief. He is also a member of the Federal Council.

The Executive Committee is in general charge of the work of the Council. Specifically it (1) acts for the Council between sessions, (2) supervises its finances, (3) fills vacancies in all offices or commissions (except the Commission on Missions), (4) prepares the program for the meetings of the Council.

The Corporation is the legal entity of the Council and the custodian of its invested funds, except those devoted to Ministerial Relief. It is authorized to receive and hold property that may be conveyed to it in trust or otherwise for the benefit of Congregational churches or of any Congregational church.

The Nominating Committee, consisting of nine members, serves from the close of one stated meeting till the close of the following stated meeting. Its members are elected in classes.

The Commission on Missions. In its new constitution the Council recognizes the following organizations as the national representatives of the Congregational churches in doing missionary work, viz., the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions and the cooperating Woman's Boards of Missions, the Congregational Home Missionary Society, the American Missionary Association, the Congregational Education Society, the Congregational Church Building Society, the Congregational Sunday-School and Publishing Society, the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief, and the Woman's Home Missionary Federation. It provides a plan by which the members of the National Council may become, with the addition of a specified number of persons, the voting membership of each Society (except the woman's organizations). It also provides for the appointment of a Commission on Missions consisting of twenty-four persons (nine nominated by the Societies) charged with the duty of advising these societies as to organization, methods and policies, and of recommending to the Council such action in the field of missions as commends itself to the judgment of the Commission. The administration of the Apportionment Plan is also one of its duties.

The Commission on Social Service is entrusted with the direction of "the activities of our churches in dealing with social problems in city and in country, including those in the rural church and community, in municipal and industrial conditions, and in the work of charities and corrections." It succeeds to the work of the Congregational Brotherhood in promoting men's organizations in the churches.

The Commission on Evangelism. To this Commission is committed the task of leading the churches in their fundamental duty of winning disciples.

The Commission on Moral and Religious Education is charged with forwarding the nurture and training of the children and youth of the Congregational churches, through the Sunday schools and Young People's societies and in schools and colleges.

The Commission on Federation, Comity and Unity and the Delegates to the Federal Council, together constitute the agency of the Council in promoting closer relations and securing greater cooperation with other denominations and in furthering the cause of Christian union throughout the nation and the world.

Four other Commissions, viz., on Temperance, on Public Worship, on Bible Cause, and to Promote Moral and Religious Welfare of Men under the Flag, emphasize the many-sided activities of the Council. Their duties are sufficiently indicated by their names.

THE CORPORATION FOR THE NATIONAL COUNCIL.

The Corporation was formed in 1909 pursuant to a resolution of the National Council. It secured a charter from the legislature of the State of Connecticut. The powers granted are described in this charter as follows:

The object of said corporation is to do and promote charitable and Christian work for the advancement of the general interests and purposes of the Congregational churches of this country, and to receive, hold and administer, in trust or otherwise, funds and property for the use of said National Council, or of churches of the Congregational order, or of any particular church of said order; and all in accordance with resolutions and declarations made from time to time by the National Council of the Congregational churches of the United States, or by any body which may succeed to the functions of said council; and said corporation may cooperate with any other corporation or body which is under the charge and control of churches of the Congregational order in the United States, or churches at the time affiliated with said order. Said corporation may acquire by purchase, gift, devise, or otherwise, and hold and dispose of real and personal property for the purposes of its creation and may make any contracts for promoting its objects and purposes not inconsistent with law.

The members of this Corporation, seventeen in number, are chosen by the National Council for a six years' term, except the Moderator and Secretary who are members only during their terms of service in the Council. The present membership of the Corporation is as follows: Edwin H. Baker, Simeon E. Baldwin, J. P. Bates, Charles R. Brown, George W. Brush, William H. Catlin, William B. Cogswell, Alfred Coit, J. R. Libby, Thomas C. McMillan, Charles W. Osgood, William M. Parsons, Epaphroditus Peck, John H. Perry, Frederick C. Platt, H. Edward Thurston and Hubert C. Herring.

The Corporation holds $3,115.00 of funds belonging to the National Council the income of which is paid to the Executive Committee of the Council to be used for denominational purposes.

It will be seen that under its Charter the Corporation is empowered to receive and administer funds for any Congregational interest local or general. Its members being chosen by the national body are directly representative of the churches, while at the same time its compact organization enables it to care for moneys entrusted to it with business-like efficiency.

Correspondence is invited from any who desire to entrust their gifts to this permanent and legally incorporated body.

The Departments of Work are:

STATE UNIVERSITIES. — Congregational student pastors for the thousands of young students from Congregational families.

COLLEGES. — Educated Christianity is the hope of the world, and the reign of Christ over human thought must result mainly from Christian institutions.

ACADEMIES. — Our Christian academies prepare teachers for public schools, young people for college, and afford liberal culture to many others who go forth as Christians to be the seed and strength of home missionary churches.

MISSION SCHOOLS IN UTAH. — Mormon leaders have a distinct political aim to gain firmer hold in national affairs in order to gain larger liberty for their un-American practices. Mormon church influence controls the public schools in Utah.

MISSION SCHOOLS IN NEW MEXICO. — The poverty, prejudice and backward condition of the Spanish-speaking Mexicans are a strange anachronism in the midst of our American life. The uplift will come through the children and their schools.

STUDENT AID. — Money is loaned or granted to meritorious and needy young men who are studying for the Christian ministry, and effort is made to enlist young people in religious and social service.

OBJECTS.

To maintain, in the city of Boston, a Congregational House; to care for and perpetuate a library of books, pamphlets, and manuscripts, and a collection of portraits and relics of the past; and to do whatever else — within the limits of its charter — shall serve to illustrate Congregational history and promote the general interests of Congregational churches.

FINANCIAL.

During the year the debt on the Congregational House has been reduced by $8,000, bringing it down to $90,000. It is a matter for wonder that our Association is almost always left out of the scope of testamentary bequests. Surely there could not be a more stable and permanent investment, or one that should more commend itself to those who have the best interests of Congregationalism at heart, than a legacy whose income would be a perpetual endowment for each and all of our missionary societies. Although the property is worth several times the amount of the mortgage, it would be far more productive for Christian work if it could be used more fully for the purposes of the Association. Every contributor to our missionary societies is directly interested in the cancellation of this debt. The Association exists for the benefit of these societies, and of the Congregational Library. The average annual rental of the Congregational House, after deducting fixed charges, amounts to above $10,000; the interest on the mortagge last year was $4,500. If the debt were paid, the appropriations to all the missionary societies could be largely increased.

THE LIBRARY.

The foresight of our fathers in beginning to save and store here all material bearing on "the religious history and literature of New England" is abundantly vindicated, on the one hand, by the growing scarcity of such documents, and on the other hand by the constant use of those which have been obtained. Daily pilgrimages are made hither for the ecclesiastical and statistical material which will prove more useful still as time goes on. It is too often forgotten, amid the crowd of appeals that seem more pressing, that by taking a very little pains now, the clerks or pastors of all our local churches can win the deep gratitude of those who are coming after us.

We have no Carnegie to give us a princely endowment, but in this enterprise a little care and painstaking are even more welcome than gifts of money.

District Secretaries. — New England District: Secretary Patton in charge, 14 Beacon St., Boston; Middle District: Secretary Smith in charge, 287 Fourth Ave., New York; Interior District: A. N. HITCHCOCK, D.D.; 19 So. LaSalle St., Chicago; Pacific Coast District: Rev. J. K. BROWNE, Acting Secretary.

Prudential Committee. — The President and Vice-President, ex officiis; ARTHUR PERRY; JOHN C. BERRY, M.D.; RAYMOND CALKINS, D.D.; WALTER K. BIGELOW; FRANCIS O. WINSLOW; Rev. EDWARD M. NOYES; Rev. GEORGE A. HALL; Rev. SHEPHERD KNAPP, D.D.; LUCIUS H. THAYER, D.D.; Rev. WILLARD L. SPERRY; HERBERT A. WILDER; HENRY P. KENDALL.

It is cause for gratitude that the year 1914, which brought the world's biggest, most widespread and most awful war did not bring more trouble to the missions of this Board. Austria and Turkey have become pitifully involved in the struggle; in these countries some lines of work have been interrupted; and the missionaries have been made helpless witnesses of unrelievable want and woe.

American Board work in China and Japan, in India, Africa and the island world has hardly been disturbed by Europe's conflict. Not a missionary on any field, including Turkey, has been in special danger; no mission property has been destroyed.

On the other hand it has been a year of notable advance in education and evangelism, in union movements and in development of native partnership.

For the fourth successive year the receipts of the Board have passed the million dollar mark, the total this year being $1,082,218.21, making possible the reducing of a deficit brought over from last year of $11,233.89, by $2,466.19.

The missionaries were never more alert, more sure of their opportunity, more eager to go forward than at the close of 1914.

The figures which show the forces on the field continue to be interesting.

The Board has now 638 American missionaries, male and female. Connected with its 106 stations where missionaries reside there are 1,457 outstations, though these do not include all the places where the gospel is preached through its agents. There are 323 native pastors, besides 540 preachers and catechists, and 2,767 teachers, making the corps of Christian laborers connected with the Board's work 5,080, besides native teachers, Bible-women, etc. This force is by no means adequate to the demands of the expanding work.

That the Society commissioned 169 missionaries the first year of its history, and more than tenfold as many, or 1,741, last year.

That four out of every five Congregational churches were planted by the Society or its auxiliaries.

That a year of missionary labor cost the Society last year, 1913-14, $513; 1890, $509; 1870, $280; 1850, $180; 1826, $127.

STATISTICAL REPORT FOR YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1913.

The Congregational Home Missionary Society carried on work during the year in twenty-seven states and territories, and the constituent state societies in eighteen more. The number of missionaries under commission for the whole or part of the year was 1,741. They cared for 2,592 churches and preaching stations. Connected with these churches were 2,174 Sunday-schools.

Of these churches and missions 433 held services in foreign tongues: German, Swedish, Dano-Norwegian, Bohemian, Italian, French, Spanish, Welsh, Finnish, Armenian, Albanian, Dutch, Bulgarian, Persian, Slovak, Swede-Finn, Greek, Portuguese, Syrian, Indian, Chinese, Polish, Turkish, Russian, and Magyar, — twenty-five in all. The largest foreign work was carried on among the German people, 114 churches and missions using that language in their service.

During the year 111 new churches were organized, 80 new church buildings were erected, and 26 parsonages were built.

The number of churches coming to self-support was 62 which was 30 less than last year.

The receipts of the Society for the year were as follows:

From contributions	$99,293.18
From constituent state societies	29,346.62
From legacies	96,986.60
From investments	30,833.89

	$300,460.29

Adding to the receipts of the Society as above given ($300,460.29) the receipts of the Constituent State Societies and the City Mission Societies we have a total of $666,280.77 for Congregational home missions last year. The average gift from each member of the Congregational churches for the year was 52 1-2 cents.

America's population has grown 35 millions since 1890.

America's wealth has grown 63 billions since 1890.

Congregationalists gave during 1890 88 cents per capita for Home Missions.

In 1913–14 we gave 52 1-2 cents per capita.

FIELD

extends from the Atlantic Coast to the Hawaiian Islands, and from Porto Rico to Alaska. It includes in the South, the Negroes and the Whites, both in the mountains and the lowlands; in the West, the Indians; on the Pacific Coast, the Chinese, Japanese and Hindus; in Alaska, the Eskimos; and in Porto Rico and Hawaii, those of various races.

PURPOSE AND METHOD.

The American Missionary Association is training leaders for these different races. This involves an INDUSTRIAL LEADERSHIP.

The Association years ago introduced into its schools Industrial Training. All our principal schools now give this training. The aim is not simply to instruct the few in handicrafts, but to give to the many an intelligent and efficient industrial leadership within their own race, which shall encourage industrial activity and lead to economic development.

AN INTELLECTUAL LEADERSHIP

is also furnished through the colleges and higher institutions. No race can be lifted by the means of industrial training alone. The larger development of intellectual life is essential to secure to any race influence and power. This the Association recognizes and provides for. In its normal schools hundreds of teachers are trained for the public schools. This training of teachers is of supreme importance in the elevation of any people.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS LEADERSHIP.

Departments of Biblical and theological instruction, in which ministers and missionaries are trained for the service of their own people, are provided by the Association. Character building and religious instruction are everywhere a part of school training. High moral standards can be met only by a well-trained moral and religious leadership.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

includes normal, theological, college, academic, and grade teaching, with instruction in manual training, domestic science, mechanical arts, and agriculture. There are five chartered institutions for colored students as follows: Fisk University, Talladega College, Tougaloo University, Straight University and Tillotson College. Piedmont College and Atlanta Theological Seminary gather a considerable body of white students. There are also secondary and elementary schools to the number of 83. The total enrollment in all the institutions of the American Missionary Association last year was 14,515.

CHURCH WORK.

The value of Congregational churches in the field occupied by the American Missionary Association cannot be measured by the number of these churches. Missions are established which often do not grow into organized ecclesiastical bodies. This is especially true among the Mountaineers and the Indians. These missions, however, are of large value in bringing the influence and light of the gospel into darkened and neglected communities. Many of the Congregational churches maintain these missions in their vicinage and so multiply their work. Our high ideals of church life maintained by these Congregational churches render somewhat slow the progress of their organization. This is true especially where there is an inadequate intelligence and leadership. An emphasis of the dignity and sacredness of church membership is thus impressed.

Among the Negroes there is an increasing expression of the ambition and desire for expansion and growth. These evidences of progress in the church work are encouraging.

LITERATURE.

Interesting leaflets representing the work of the American Missionary Association can be secured at any time by sending to one of the offices.

The American Missionary magazine is published monthly, representing the work of the several home missionary societies. The subscription price is fifty cents per year.

The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief is organized by charter from the legislature of Connecticut, "to secure, hold, manage and distribute funds for the relief of needy Congregational ministers and the needy families of deceased Congregational ministers, in accordance with resolutions and declarations adopted or made, from time to time, by the National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States."

"The Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers" has been chartered under the laws of New Jersey and is now in full operation. The nine members of its Board of Trustees are also members of the Board of Directors of the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief. Both Boards have the same Corresponding Secretary, the same Treasurer and their work is conducted from the same office in New York. All our Congregational ministers, not debarred by the limitations of age or physical infirmities, are urged to become members of the Annuity Plan.

In the Relief Department the year 1914 was one of great encouragement. It was the privilege of the Board to pay in pensions during the year $33,850.87, the largest amount in the history of the Board. The receipts for the year from all sources were $58,946.42. On Dec. 31, 1914, the Board held invested funds at book value to the amount of $299,718.11 and had a cash balance of $3,877.63. The Board appeals to the ministers and churches and individual friends for larger gifts both to the Pension and Annuity departments for the year upon which we have entered.

Departments.

There are two main divisions in the activities of this society, administered in five departments as follows:

I. Sunday-school Planting and Promotion, through the Missionary and Extension, and the Educational Departments.

II. Publishing and Selling, through the Editorial Department and the Business Department.

MISSIONARY AND EXTENSION DEPARTMENT.

Its time-honored work is the planting and strengthening of Sunday-schools in all parts of our country. This department derives its income from the gifts of the churches, Sunday-schools, individuals, and such sums as are granted to it in cash from the net profits of the Business Department. Since 1882 it has organized 12,758 Sunday-schools, from which about 1,700 churches have grown.

Since 1883 all moneys contributed to the society by churches and individuals have gone to this work, and in addition to sums so contributed, the Business Department has given about $100,000 in cash.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The Educational Department, organized in 1910, suggests educational standards, determines lesson courses, makes plans for the training of teachers, promotes the coordinating of educational agencies within the churches and without, and renders direct assistance through the publications of the Society, and through the members of its own staff.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

The Editorial Department, under the same direction as the Educational Department, creates the materials of religious education; among these are included all Sunday-school lessons and weekly papers, all helps and courses of study for teachers, and all pamphlets and leaflets dealing with education. The expenses of the Editorial Department are defrayed from the proceeds of the Business Department.

THE CONGREGATIONALIST AND CHRISTIAN WORLD DEPARTMENT.

This paper, the oldest religious journal in the country, now in its ninety-ninth year, and the only national paper owned by Congregationalists, has been the property of this Society, and conducted by it for the entire denomination, for fourteen years. It is the indispensable medium of information and influence among our churches and leaders.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

The Business Department, under the trade name of "The Pilgrim Press," has an entirely separate treasury. It publishes The Congregationalist and Christian World, the Wellspring, Pilgrim Teacher, International Uniform and Graded Sunday-School Lessons, Sunday-school and church supplies, and conducts two book-selling establishments in Boston and Chicago. It does not appeal for funds of any description. Its profits, so far as they are not essential to a necessary increase of its capital, are appropriated for the benefit of the denomination.

This Federation is the only national organization existing among Congregational women. The constitution in part is as follows:

Object. — Its object shall be to secure the cooperation of all state bodies of women who labor in any organized way for the advancement of home missionary work in connection with Congregational churches.

Membership. — All state organizations of women connected with Congregational churches, seeking to promote home missionary work, shall be eligible to membership in the Federation.

Meeting. — The Executive Committee shall decide on the time and place of the annual meeting, which shall be held, whenever it seems desirable, in connection with the annual meeting of one of the national societies.

The Federation is made up of thirty-three women's state unions. It is the hope and purpose of the Federation to unify the Home Missionary work of the Congregational women of the United States and to raise $300,000 for the work of the Homeland Societies. For purposes of economy this money is disbursed by the thirty-three state treasurers directly to the six homeland societies, following as closely as possible the percentages of the apportionment plan.

The Federation has representation on the National Apportionment Commission, the Congregational Home Missionary Society, the A. M. A., and the Church Building Society. It is now recognized in all denominational literature and plans as one of the national societies.

The American Missionary is the official organ of the Federation.

THE WOMAN'S BOARDS OF MISSIONS.

The three Woman's Boards are corporate bodies, chartered under the statutes of Massachusetts, Illinois, and California, respectively. Each cooperates with the American Board and assumes the support of a part of the work under the care of the American Board. They collect money through Branches, Auxiliaries, and Mission Circles, and support missionaries as teachers, evangelists, doctors, and nurses. Their missionaries receive appointment from the Prudential Committee of the American Board, and are enrolled as its missionaries. Although the funds of the Boards are forwarded to the mission field through the treasury of the American Board, all the money has been previously designated by the Woman's Boards, each of which has its specific work to be supported out of its own funds. The women, girls, and children of the churches are the constituency upon whom rests the responsibility of providing these funds.

OTHER SOCIETIES.

THE CONGREGATIONAL BOARD OF PASTORAL SUPPLY.

610 Congregational House, Boston.

Directors. — Appleton P. Williams, Chairman; Rev. Frederick E. Emrich, D.D.; Seba A. Holton; George F. Kendall; Rev. Frank W. Merrick, D.D.; Sylvanus G. Morse; Rev. D. Augustine Newton; Rev. J. Edgar Park; Rev. Francis A. Poole; Irwin W. Tapley; Rev. Benjamin A. Willmott; Chas. L. Ziegler.

Secretary. — Rev. Arthur J. Covell.

This Board is maintained and controlled by the Conference of Congregational Churches in Massachusetts. It is an advisory agency in aiding pastoral settlements. Its rule is to make recommendations to a church only in response to direct official request. It is the servant of the churches, and is entirely responsible to them.

Our business is to set before the churches clear and impartial and considerate testimonies relative to ministers concerning whom they make inquiries. We give names of men available for the pastorate, if that is desired; and we designate and engage men to preach with reference to settlement whenever that may be left with us. We also furnish temporary or occasional supplies wherever they may be wanted. The Secretary visits churches upon request, supplying the pulpit and meeting the committee of the church.

The Secretary also visits the theological seminaries, that he may, so far as possible, know personally the men of the senior classes who are ready for settlement. And as far as desired, and other duties permit, he speaks before associations of churches and ministerial unions in the interests of the work for which the Board stands.

The work of the office is large and increasing. We have carefully recorded statements concerning more than half of all the Congregational ministers in the country. The churches served by us are most largely in Massachusetts and in the other New England states, but our business reaches to almost every state, and passes even a little beyond the bounds of the Union.

The records of our office contain important facts relative to the churches that have corresponded with us. They cover preaching engagements of every sort made through our agency, and they include copies of all letters descriptive of ministerial standing and capacity. Nothing is done that is not put within reach of authorized inspection.

It is not meant that anything should be done as a matter of merely persona favor or disfavor. It is not intended either that the individual judgment of any one person should be much put forward as of decisive weight. In matters concerning ministerial character and capacity it is meant that there should be gathered in, as far as possible, the general judgment of discerning men who have had opportunities of knowledge; and it is the business of the Secretary to place this general judgment as best he can before those who have need to know and the right to know what it is.

The expenses of the Board are borne chiefly by contributions from the churches of the state through the treasury of the Massachusetts Conference. Fees are charged, however, to ministers, for the furnishing of opportunities for the occasional supplying of pulpits, and also for aid in securing pastoral settlements outside of Massachusetts. Within the state of Massachusetts there is no settlement fee. No charge is made to churches anywhere. But churches outside of Massachusetts have often assumed the payment of office fees which might otherwise have been paid by the ministers concerned.

BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY.

Office: Room 601, Congregational House, Boston.

ORGANIZED in 1827 by a body of Congregational ministers and laymen in Dr. Lyman Beecher's church, the basement of which was at that time the home of the American Board. Incorporated in 1829.

President. — Secretary. — CHARLES F. STRATTON.

Vice-President. — SAMUEL USHER. Treasurer. — CHARLES F. STRATTON.

Board of Managers. — The officers above named and George Gould, Luke W. Fowle, Charles W. Wrightington, William A. Paine, Franklin P. Shumway, Edward B. Wilder, Albert Murdoch, George F. Kendall, Herbert J. Keith, John Gordon, Esq., Sylvanus G. Morse.

Corresponding Secretary. — Rev. MERRITT A. FARREN.

Object. — This Society is devoted to the material, moral, and spiritual welfare of seamen. It aims to promote temperance, thrift, morality, and religion among a class of men whose privations and hardships, temptations and perils, are extreme, and who at the same time respond to helpful moral and religious influences more readily than any other class of men. It also undertakes to provide these men with social entertainment and relieve their wants when shipwrecked and destitute.

Scope. — This work is not local. It has to be done where seamen are, at large commercial centers like Boston, or on great thoroughfares of commerce, like Vineyard Sound. The work is necessarily prosecuted at points on the coast, but it cares for sailor boys who have come from every state in the Union.

Every year naval recruiting parties cover a large part of our country with their operations, and enlist young men for sea service from every state in the Union. To these lads, separated from the influences of home, church, and Sunday-school, our Bethels and reading-rooms, with their varied entertainments, furnish a safe and cheerful resort free from the temptations of the saloon.

The work is not only for sailors from every part of our land, but for men of every race and nation. These men are followed by correspondence to all parts of the world; so that while this work has its center upon our coasts, its circumference includes all seas and shores where sailors may be found.

Methods. — The work is not simply preaching to sailors, but a large and varied ministry to all the wants of seamen. Good reading is supplied to men remote from books and news stands. Entertainments, concerts, and sailors' suppers are given for the social side of the sailor's life; the earnings of men are received and placed on deposit, with interest; invalids in naval or marine hospitals are visited with cheer and comfort. The temperance pledge plays an important part, a dozen or more sailors often signing at a time. Power launches are maintained to minister to the wants of Jack afloat as well as ashore. Attractive singing is provided, not only in our Bethels, but at the navy yard and in hospitals, and sailors afloat are regaled with gospel songs that touch the heart, sung by young people on board our harbor launch. Food, clothing, and shelter are supplied to men shipwrecked and destitute at all seasons, especially in the rigors of winter. Large numbers of these unfortunates are cared for every year.

Results. — Many men have been led to save their earnings, an aggregate of many thousands of dollars. Hundreds of men have been helped and befriended in time of dire distress. Many thousands have had a cheery and homelike place of resort in reading-rooms, fitted up with games as well as with books and magazines. All this is additional to the regular evangelistic work of the Society, which is unsurpassed in its way.

But the most noteworthy results of the work are of that intangible kind, affecting the heart and life, which cannot be tabulated. In our Sailor's Rest and Chapel, 287 Hanover St., Boston, there are religious meetings Wednesday, Friday, and Sunday evenings, and there have been seasons when from November to May there was rarely a meeting without requests for prayer. At our Vineyard Haven Bethel there are conversions every month, nearly every week in the year, and in the last six years sixteen hundred sailors have united in a bond of Christian fellowship known as the "Hold Fast," and with these men the Chaplain is in constant correspondence. The spiritual value of the work accomplished is beyond all estimate.

Needs — The Society needs an annual contribution from every church, Sunday-school, and Endeavor Society. It greatly needs at this time special gifts from favored donors, amounting to at least $7,000, to meet the balance of expense for changes and improvements in our Sailor's Rest at 287 Hanover St., by which two thirds of that fine building have been made available for Bethel work instead of one third, as heretofore. It needs to have its revenues supplemented by an occasional bequest from generous patrons whose living gifts may fail us. It needs the sympathy and prayers of all who care for the sailor's welfare and have any sense of the great debt we owe to the much-neglected men of the sea.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Boston Seaman's Friend Society the sum of $..... to be applied to the charitable uses and purposes of said Society.

There is a considerable range of electives, and these are supplemented by many allied courses in Harvard University, open to Andover students. FACULTY.

E. LYMAN HOOD, M.A., PH.D., President, and Professor of Church History.
ALVAN F. SHERRILL, B.A., D.D., Dean, and Professor Homiletics.
FRANK R. SHIPMAN, B.A., B.D., Professor Natural Theology.
FRANK T. LEE, B.A., D.D., Extension Professor in the Field.
JAMES W. BIXLER, M.A., D.D., Lecturer on History of Doctrine.

The Seminary aims (1) to develop the practical side of the religious life, and thus produce an evangelistic and spiritual ministry; (2) to give the student an insight into modern methods of interpretation, but so as to produce a constructive scholarship; (3) to find God and the Holy Spirit in history and the Church; to see Christ in the owliest forms of philanthropic endeavor; and thus preach a gospel for the whole life. The Seminary aims to enable the student to have definite convictions and yet a mind open to the advances of scholarship.

The courses of instruction are arranged to meet the needs of the Southern field. The regular theological course embraces three years of study. At its completion the degree of B.D. or B.B.L. is given. Candidates entering upon this course must have a college course or its equivalent. The English theological course is designed to meet the needs of many pastors who are desirous of entering upon a course of study, but who are too advanced in age to take the regular college preparatory requirements. In such cases the course embraces three years of study besides the regular English preparatory studies. The third course is the Correspondence, for home study. It is given to meet the needs of pastors who are so situated that they cannot leave their work to attend the Seminary. The fourth is also for non-resident students, and is designed especially for the graduates of this and other seminaries, who desire to continue, under experienced leadership. systematic study. To all non-resident students books are sent, lessons are assigned, and examinations are given.

The books of our library will be sent to pastors and teachers, free of cost save postage, to all who comply with the usual rules safeguarding their return.

TERMS OF ADMISSION. — Candidates for admission must be members of some evangelical church. Courses are opened to students of either sex.

EXPENSES. — No charge is made for tuition or room rent. Board can be obtained for $2.00 and upward per week. A limited amount of student aid is given to worthy men. All active young men can find employment in the city that will help them to pay necessary expenses. Preaching and missionary work in connection with the prosecution of studies are possible.

OTHER LECTURERS.

The sole purpose of Bangor Theological Seminary is to train men and women to become preachers, pastors and teachers, and missionaries. Its primary and all the supplementary means of instruction seek this one end. It is open to Christians of any denomination.

It offers to college graduates and to those who have received equivalent discipline the opportunity to gain a thorough, modern, practical, ministerial training, and makes it possible for good students who are thus qualified to complete in three years the studies required for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

At the same time it makes provision for those who are belated in beginning their ministerial preparation and who have not had the privilege of the usual full and unbroken academic training. The studies are adapted to their needs, with the hope that they will be able, in a somewhat longer time, to cover the full course. A considerable experience has shown that there are many earnest young laymen in our churches whose early studies, practical experience and natural gifts qualify them to prosecute successfully theological studies. They often become most able and efficient ministers.

Attention is called to the Seminary's Library of about 28,000 volumes, well selected and steadily growing; to its fine gymnasium under a competent physical director; to Convocation Week, with its group of eminent lecturers and its gathering on this occasion from northern New England of a great company of working ministers.

Because of the adoption of the cooperative plan in the boarding-house, the necessary expenses of the student may be kept within very moderate bounds.

The Seminary year extends usually from the last Wednesday in September to the first Wednesday in June.

Requests for catalogues, letters of inquiry, or applications for admission should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, Prof. Warren J. Moulton.

THE SEMINARY aims (1) to develop a vigorous spiritual life as the only sound basis for scholarship and service; (2) to train in scientific methods of exegetical and historical research; (3) to discover and teach the truth of God as revealed in the Scriptures and the leading of his Spirit in history, and its application to the present needs of the world; and (4) to equip students practically for the Christian ministry in its various forms.

THE CURRICULUM is arranged in accordance with a system of Grouped Electives, thus offering either a balanced course or one rather closely specialized. It is also fitted to University students prepared to acquire advanced standing. The degree of Bachelor of Divinity is given for completion of the course with special credit and presentation of an approved thesis.

THE ALLIED KENNEDY SCHOOL OF MISSIONS provides opportunity for thorough study of missionary theory and methods, and numerous languages.

THE HARTFORD SCHOOL OF RELIGIOUS PEDAGOGY, affiliated with the Seminary, supplies an nvaluable supplement to the instruction in this department.

GRADUATE STUDY is strongly encouraged. The degrees of S.T.M. and PH.D. are given under carefully defined conditions. Two fellowships are offered in the undergraduate department, each for two years of foreign study; and two of $500 each for one year of post-graduate work in residence.

THE APPARATUS includes a library of 105,000 volumes (excluding duplicates), museum, reading-room, gymnasium, music-room, etc.

TERMS OF ADMISSION. — Candidates for admission must be members of some Christian church and graduates of some college, except in special cases. Those who are not college graduates can be admitted only after examination and on probation. All courses are open to women on the same terms as to men.

EXPENSES. — No charge is made for tuition, rooms, furniture, and bedding except a nominal fee of $25 for use of steam and for supervision. Board is provided under the care of the Students' Association, at about $4.00 per week.

Scholarship aid is provided for those needing it, varying in amount according to scholarly rank.

CALENDAR. — The eighty-first year closes May 26, 1915 and the next session begins Sept. 22.

CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Chartered, 1855.

For upwards of ten years, the question of removing the Chicago Theological Seminary to the neighborhood of a university had been before the Board of Directors.

At the Annual Meeting of the Board on May 5, 1914, at which all the Directors except one were present, a resolution was unanimously adopted, authorizing the removal to the vicinity of the University of Chicago, under an agreement between the two institutions, which provides that each shall give certain privileges to the students of the other.

This action is in keeping with the terms of the Seminary's charter which reads that it "shall be located in or near the City of Chicago"; it is in keeping with the representative character of the Seminary in that the Directors who authorize this removal are chosen by the Triennial Convention made up of delegates from the Congregational Conferences of the sixteen constituent states.

This arrangement secures to the Seminary students the advantages of the University library and courses of instruction in exchange for the privilege given to the University students of taking the courses of instruction offered by the Seminary. The Seminary retains complete independence and the absolute control of its own affairs.

Superior advantages are thus afforded students for the Christian ministry in respect to general theological education, specialized training in different departments of service such as religious education and others, and the opportunities of becoming acquainted with the leading thinkers of the world in their visits to the University.

The Seminary will begin work at its new location in the fall of 1915. Pending the erection of buildings of its own, certain corridors in the dormitories of the Divinity School of the University will be set apart for the students of Chicago Theological Seminary. In this way it is possible to maintain the integrity of the Seminary life during the transition period.

The expenses to the student will continue to be about the same as they have been for the last few years. The expense of a furnished room is from $8 to $12 a quarter. Board may be obtained at $3 a week and upward. The tuition is free. There are small library and incidental fees.

Graduated scholarships not to exceed $200 for the Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters are available for approved students of satisfactory standing in their studies, in return for which service under the direction of the Faculty will be required. These sums include the grant from the Education Society. Further detailed information can be obtained upon application.

Candidates for the degree, B.D., are required to possess a Bachelor's degree from a university or college of recognized worth.

For the present the Seminary will conduct its academic year on the basis of the Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters. At a later time the Summer Quarter may be added.

The Autumn Quarter for 1915 begins Thursday, September 30.

For further information address Chicago Theological Seminary, Haskell Museum, Chicago University.

The Faculty is further strengthened by cooperation with Pres. Claiborne Milton Hill, D.D., of the Pacific Coast Baptist Seminary; and Dean Earl Morse Wilbur, M.A., D.D., of the Unitarian Divinity School.

Also, from the University of California, George Malcolm Stratton, PH.D., Professor of Psychology; Charles Mills Gayley, LITT.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature; Chauncey W. Wells, A.B., Associate Professor of English Composition and Rhetoric; Alexis F. Lange, PH.D., Professor of the Theory and Practice of Education; John Fryer, LL.D., Professor of Oriental Languages and Literatures; Jessica B. Peixotto, PH.D., Associate Professor of Sociology; William Popper, PH.D., Associate Professor of Semitic Languages and Literatures; Chas. Rieber, PH.D., Professor of Logic.

The Seminary is located at Berkeley, the seat of the University of California. It is thus enabled to avail itself freely of the advantages of this University, among the foremost in the United States, all of its courses being open, without cost, to the Seminary students. Courses by the eight professors of the University above named have been incorporated in the Seminary curriculum, these men forming, to all intents and purposes, an associate faculty. The Library of the University (over 200,000 volumes) and the special library of the Seminary (12,000 volumes) afford large opportunities for special study. Instruction in medicine can be had in the Medical School of the University, and better preparation in the languages of China and Japan can be had under Professor Fryer than in the Orient itself. The climate is remarkably even, constantly cool, stimulating and favorable for study during the entire year, knowing nothing of debilitating spring changes or prostrating summer heats.

The main purpose is to train men for the practical ministry. The usual courses in Exegetical, Historical, Systematic, and Practical Theology are provided. The prescribed courses, about two thirds of the whole, are arranged to cover the fundamental parts of all departments. For the rest the student, so far as prepared, is allowed to choose freely among electives covering all recognized branches. Eighty units of credit are the required minimum for graduation, a unit representing one class-room exercise a week for a half year. Hebrew and Greek are not required for the degree of B.D., but unusual facilities are furnished for acquiring them. The University of California has established an excellent course in modern charities.

The Seminary is open to students of every Christian denomination, to women as well as to men. A college diploma is required for admission to regular standing as a candidate for the B.D. degree. Advanced courses are provided for graduate students. Special students may be received, as in the University, to such studies as they are qualified to pursue.

Regarding expenses and pecuniary aid, and for further information, address President Nash.

The next year begins Aug. 17, 1915.

Maintenance and Relation to Talladega College. — Talladega Theological Seminary is the one Theological Seminary maintained by the A.M.A. for the training of negro ministers. It is a coordinate department of Talladega College; and by a system of cross-credits, students can take college and Seminary degrees in six years. Similar work in the colleges of the same rank as Talladega is accepted in the Seminary.

Aims. — The Seminary stands for character, Scholarship, and piety. It aims to develop leadership among a great and needy people, through long and severe training under competent guidance.

Courses of Study. — The Seminary maintains two distinct courses of study — the Theological and the Bible Training. Courses are offered in Social Service Practice, Community Methods, Rural Economics, Music, Religious Education, and Sunday-school Methods. Emphasis is given to the study of the English Bible, pursued in a reverent spirit and according to modern historical methods.

Requirements for Admission and Graduation. — For the Theological Course, the four years of college are desirable. As this is not in all cases feasible, men of promise with a full college preparatory course, are accepted. Candidates for the degree of B.D. must be college graduates, with at least two full years of Seminary Greek. A diploma is granted to all other graduates. For admission to the Bible Training Course, the student should have completed the seventh grade, and when the course is finished, he receives a certificate. The Seminary offers a correspondence course to non-resident pastors.

Equipment and General Advantages. — The Seminary is housed in a commodious building, equipped with steam heat, electric lights, and a shower bath. Students have the advantage of the college and Seminary library and of college classes. All denominations are received on equal terms.

Expenses. — Tuition and rooms are free. Students pay for board, laundry, and incidental fees. The bare necessities are not less than $115 a year. There are opportunities for self-help, and some student funds are available under certain conditions for those whose scholarship is satisfactory.

For further information, address Dean Frank S. Brewer.

ANNUAL STATISTICS OF CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

The following pages contain the statistics as collected in 1914 by the statistical secretaries of the several state organizations, and compiled for this publication under vote of the Executive Committee of the National Council. They are all of date Jan. 1, 1914, except that ministerial supply is, as far as possible, brought down to date.

The contents of the statistics are as follows:

1. The statistics of the churches and their ministers, by states.
2. Statistics of Sunday schools, independent and missionary.
3. The National, State and local organizations of the churches, with officers and dates of sessions in 1914 and 1915, so far as correctly known.
4. General summary tables for the year.
5. Tables of summaries, for each decade of years 1858–1913.
6. Tables based upon the statistics.
7. List of Congregational ministers in foreign lands.
8. Alphabetical list of ministers, with P. O. address, and indexed to pages.
9. Alphabetical list of licentiates.
10. List of ministers of other denominations supplying Congregational churches.

RULES OF COMPILATION.

1. To arrange everything in alphabetical order as far as possible.

2. To make new tables each year. When a church has failed to report, items of church and Sunday-school membership are inserted. Justice to the churches which do report requires this, as their real progress may be apparently diminished or reversed, by lack of the figures. The special attention of state secretaries is called to this point, as it has often been disregarded. The list of churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations which change the place of the church on the list are specifically mentioned with the state summary, so that each church can be traced from year to year.

3. To examine carefully all the tables, with a view to correction or addition by correspondence, especially to correct "pastoral supply" to the latest moment. Proof sheets have been sent to secretaries and some home-missionary superintendents who could be reached in season. But no such changes have been allowed to affect the summaries.

4. The prime name in a table line is always supposed to be the name of the place, town or city, in which the church is located as determined by the place of the meeting-house. This is also the name of its post-office, unless followed in line or margin by a name in heavy-faced type. In such cases the latter is the post-office and THIS EMPHATIC TYPE IN LINE OF MARGIN, IS USED EXCLUSIVELY FOR NAMES OF POST-OFFICES. If this postal word is an adjective, it goes with the preceding name, e. g., "Newton West;" if itself a name, it supersedes the other, as "Newton, Auburndale." In general, the two pages, being invariably opposite, are treated as one, and marginal references on the second page are made to footnotes on the first, without repetition when they occur there.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS.

1. Any church given in brackets is one organized since Jan. 1; not included in the summary, but inserted for information. A few churches temporarily not associated are inserted by their own wish. A star (*) denotes a church not associated.

2. Pastors installed by council are marked "i.," and pastors recognized by council are marked "r."; others in service are not marked, but are considered pastors except where otherwise distinguished. Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

3. The tables are not A POSTAL GUIDE TO THE ADDRESSES OF MINISTERS, and any person so using them runs his own risk of error. The General Alphabetical List of Ministers gives their post-offices. Special attention is called to this fact, which is often overlooked.

4. The two columns following the names of ministers in the tables of churches denote (1) the year of ordination, (2) the year when the minister was installed or commenced service with that church.

5. A star (*) in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers denotes that the person so designated appears in the tables, reported by some church, as its minister, but is not reported to be a member of any association or conference of ministers or churches in the United States; or that he is found supplying some church or did so as pastor by council last year and may be presumed to be in transitu, though his name is not in the state alphabetical list.

6. Licentiates are not reckoned as ministers. Churches supplied by such are so considered and not included in list of vacant churches. When churches are supplied by ministers of other denominations it is so stated, and they appear under the head "Supplies." Churches actually vacant are found in column marked "vacant." The names of licentiates and ministers of other denominations will be found, not in the Alphabetical List of Ministers of Congregational Churches, but in lists following the regular list of Congregational ministers. The General Alphabetical List includes only Congregational ministers.

7. The names of some Congregational ministers are missing; but it is solely because they are not reported by any organization of churches or ministers.

8. Under "Church Members," "Absent" are included in "Males," "Females," and "Total." Under the head of "Removed," "Died," "Letter," and "Discipline" are represented by the abbreviations Di., L., R., respectively. It should be borne in mind that in the tables, "R." includes Discipline and Roll Revision. In the General Summaries the letter "R." is used, and includes Revision and Discipline. Under "Sunday Schools," "h" signifies Home Department, and "m," a Mission School connected with the Sunday school of the church. Under "Men's Organizations," "x" means men's organizations exclusively; "z" boys' organizations exclusively. In all other cases "Men's" and "Boys'" are together.

9. Attention is called to totals in membership. Differences are to be accounted for because of revision of reports for the purpose of balancing.

ALABAMA.

General Congregational Conference of (Anglo-Saxon). Officers: Rev. Charles T. Lunsford, Hackleburg, moderator; Rev. James M. Graham, Ashland, statistical secretary and treasurer. Session of 1915: Birmingham, Pilgrim Church, Nov. 12–14.

LIST OF ORDAINED CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS

THE following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected by correspondence to the latest possible date.

Figures following a name indicate the other page or pages on which it is found except that when it is not found elsewhere they indicate the date of ordination. (When the post-office address in the statistical tables is different from that given here it will be understood of course that it has changed since the tables went to press.)

A star (*) before a minister's name indicates that he has not been reported by any State Association or Conference this year but on account of having been previously reported is presumed to be in transitu, It has not been possible to verify these addresses and unless reported another year it is not expected that the names will be retained.

Only ordained Congregational ministers are included in this list. Separate lists follow of licentiates, ministers of other denominations, and those serving Congregational churches whose ministerial standing is not reported.

Names of persons variously employed are indicated by Ch., chaplain; Ed., editor; Ev., evangelist. My., missionary; Pf., professor; Pn., principal; Pr., president; Sec., secretary; St., superintendent; T., teacher.

LIST OF LICENTIATES REPORTED.

THIS list contains the names of licentiates reported, with references to the pages where any such are mentioned as supplying churches.

The list does not agree with the number given in State Minutes, because all ordained since the lists were reported are here dropped. The post-office addresses are often delusive, the place being that of temporary service only. Names followed by state only are of persons approved in the state mentioned, no residence being reported. The list is incomplete, because some states make no full report of licentiates.
